Dear Sirs:

I have been traveling and away from Florida since November of last year. Upon my return, I have received this notice of corporation revocation.

It has never been my intent to close my corporation. I have been active since 1992. I believe the prior notices were discarded believing them to be part of the work my accountant would handle (I lost my bookkeeper this past year). I am enclosing a check for $165.00 and requesting that my corporation be reinstated. Now that I am aware of this filing requirement, I will guarantee that future filings take place in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Walter C. Hackett Jr.
President, Intuit Systems, Inc.
