Dear Sirs:

As of my phone conversation with your office this morning I am enclosing a copy of the report and check mailed to your office on April 4, 1997. As you reported to me since the report was not received by you and the check was not cashed it must have been lost in the mail. Enclosed please find the copies and a new check. As of your instructions I have re-signed the copy of the report.

Thank you,
Matt Romines
