Dear Sir:

July 25, 1991<sup>(2)</sup>

I have been out of town with 2 relatives who had cancer and are now deceased with no one to care for them.

When I have arrived home a look at my mail I found my copieration report and an increase in late fees.

I am a widow have very little income and have not worked and cannot pay the increased late charges therefore I am asking you to accept my fee without charging any late charges since I was not home to take care of my responsibilities and taking care of my relatives.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration.
Cherry D. Napier
