Re: Harris Automotive Supply, Inc.
114 N. Weston St.
Rensselaer, IN. 47978

($15.00 Total)

Dear Sirs,

The officers of the above referenced corporation asked that I explain why this notice from your office of administrative dissolution is the first notice that they actually received that informed them that they were to file an annual report with your state. The problem that they had until a few weeks ago was that they shared an office and address with another business that has a very similar name that they do business by. Harris Automotive Supply, Inc. does business as Boezeman Lubricant & Supply Co. and the other business's name is Boezeman Oil Co. Inc. The officers of Harris Automotive Supply, Inc. found that the employees of the other business was not giving them all of their mail. They were being called by some vendors about outstanding bills that they did not receive in the mail but that the vendors said they had sent. We think that is what happened with the first two notices that were sent to them regarding their annual report. Since then they have changed their mailing address to the address listed above and have indicated that on the enclosed report.

The officers of Harris Automotive Supply, Inc. just recently spent a great deal of money in legal fees and other fees to reinstate this corporation last year. It was not their intention to forego or lapse any necessary forms to go through that again. If there are any questions, please notify Mr. Richard Baunach, an officer, at 219-866-5127.

Sincerely,

K. Duane Nelson
