We believe in the deity of Jesus Christ , in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning sacrifice through His blood, and His present priestly ministry.

ARTICLE III MEMBERS AND MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Membership. Any person who subscribes to the Statement of Faith and who agrees to comply with all provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws (and amendments thereto), may become a member of the congregation of the Corporation. To become a voting member, qualified to vote at each meeting and receive any benefits which are granted to members, such member must be at least 18 years of age, shall have subscribed to the Statement of Faith and have been approved and recorded in the minutes of the meeting, by the Board of Trustees. The rights of a member to vote, and all of his right title and interest in or to the corporation, shall cease on the termination of his membership. Membership shall terminate (i) immediately upon notification to the corporation by the member, of (ii) immediately upon decision or pursuant to policy of the Board of Trustees for any reason which, in the sole discretion of the Board, calls for termination of membership. No member shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the corporation assets upon the dissolution of fellowship.

Members shall not receive any stated salary or compensation for their services as such. The Board of Trustees shall have power, in its discretion, to contract for and to pay to Members rendering unusual or special services to the fellowship, special compensation appropriate to the value of such services.

Section 2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the voting members of the Corporation shall be held during July of each year at such time and place as the trustees may determine. At such meeting, the voting members shall, in person or by proxy, by majority vote, confirm nomination of Board members by the Board of Trustees and may remove an existing Trustee by casting a three-fourths majority vote; such majority shall be the greater of seventy percent (70%) of the voting members or fifty (50) members.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of members may be called and held at any time and place by the Board of Trustees and shall be so called and upon the written request of the greater of fifty percent (50%) of the voting members or fifty (50) members, stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the meeting, either personally or by first class mail, by or at the direction of the President, Secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the membership books of the corporation, with postage prepaid.

Section 5. Notice of Adjourned Meetings. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned is announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and any business may be transacted at the adjourned meeting that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. If, however, after the adjournment, the Board of Trustees fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in Section 4 above, to each member of record on the new record date entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 6. Waiver of Notice. Whenever notice is required to be given to any member, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be the equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the members need be specified in the written waiver of notice.

Section 7. Closing of Transfer Books and Fixing Record Date.

1. For the purpose of determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of members or any adjournment thereof, or in order to make a determination of members for any purpose, the Board of Trustees may provide that the membership record books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, sixty days. If the membership record books shall be closed for the purpose of determining members, such books shall be closed for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting.

2. In lieu of closing the membership record books, the Board of Trustees may fix in advance a date as the record date for any determination of members, such date in any case to be not more than sixty days and, in case of a meeting of members, not less than ten days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of members is to be taken.

3. If the membership record books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of members entitled to notice or to vote at a meeting of members, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed shall be the record date for such determination of members.

4. When a determination of members entitled to vote at any meeting of members has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof, unless the Board of Trustees fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 8. Membership Quorum. The greater of fifty percent (50%) of or fifty (50) members entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the members represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater number of voting by class is required by Chapter xxx of the Florida General Corporation Act or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws. After a quorum has been established at a members' meeting, the subsequent withdrawal of members, as to reduce the number of members entitled to vote at the meeting below the number required for a quorum shall not affect the validity of any action taken at the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

ARTICLE IV TRUSTEES

Section 1. The number of Trustees shall be no less than three (3). The appointment of Trustees, other than the first Board of Trustees, and except as provided in any Article of these Bylaws, shall be confirmed at the next annual meeting of the voting members, and each Trustee therein confirmed by the membership shall then be established as a permanent member of the Board.. The Board of Trustees shall be authorized to increase or decrease their number by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Trustees may be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining Trustees. A Trustee elected to fill a vacancy shall serve until the next annual meeting of voting members at which time an affirmative vote of the membership shall establish that Trustee as a permanent member of the Board.

Any office of Trustee to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Trustees shall be presented for confirmation at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of voting members called for that purpose. A Trustee confirmed to fill a newly created trusteeship shall serve until the next annual meeting of voting members at which time an affirmative vote of the membership shall establish that Trustee as a permanent member of the Board.

Section 3. The affairs of the fellowship shall be managed by its Board of Trustees which may exercise all such powers of the fellowship and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statutes or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the voting members.

Section 4. The Trustees may keep the books of the fellowship, except such as required by law to be kept within the state, outside of the State of Florida at such place or places as they may from time to time determine.

Section 5. The Board of Trustees shall have the authority to establish reasonable compensation of all Trustees for services to the corporation as Trustees, officers or otherwise.

Section 6. Trustees will become ordained Ministers, as defined under Article XIV of these Bylaws (Licensing & Ordination of Ministers).

ARTICLE V
MEETING OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meeting of the Board of Trustee, regular or special, may be held either within or without the State of Florida.

Section 2. First Regular Meeting. The first meeting of each newly appointed Board of Trustee shall be as soon after the annual meeting of the members as is reasonably feasible, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary to the newly appointed Trustees in order to legally constitute the meeting, provided a quorum is present or it may convene at such time and place as may be fixed by the consent in writing of all the Trustees.

Section 3. Regular Meetings. Regularly scheduled meetings of the Board of Trustees may be held upon such notice, or without notice, at such time and such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees or by the President on three days' notice to each Trustee, either personally, or by mail, by telegram or Facsimile transmission; special meetings shall be called by the Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two (2) Trustees.

Section 5. Waiver of Notice of Meeting. Attendance of a Trustee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Trustee attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Trustees need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 6. Quorum and Voting. A majority of the Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by law or by the Articles of Incorporation. The active majority of the Trustees present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees, unless the act of a greater number is required by statutes or the Articles of Incorporation. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of Trustees, the Trustees present at such meeting may adjourn the meeting without notice, other than an announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 7. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Trustees may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions taken, shall be signed by all of the Trustees entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

ARTICLE VI ADVISORY BOARD

Section 1. Advisory Board. The Board of Trustees may in its discretion appoint an advisory board. Advisory board members will be responsible for promoting and advancing the image, purposes and objectives of the corporation throughout the community and elsewhere as appropriate. A majority objective in designating as advisory board member is to encourage prospective nominees for the Board of Trustees and others to become better informed concerning the programs and activities of the corporation. Advisory board members will generally be expected to attend meetings of the Board of Trustees, but will serve in this capacity without vote or formal authority over fellowship affairs. The Chairman of the Board of Trustees will be responsible for inviting advisory board members to attend Board of Trustee meetings, as well as for calling any of the meetings involving advisory board members.

Section 2. Number and Term of Advisory Board Members. A maximum of ten (10) persons may be elected as advisory directors by action of the Board of Trustees. This number may be increased by action of the Board of Trustees. Each shall serve without compensation. Advisory board members shall be elected for one (1) year terms, ending on the date of the annual Board of Trustees meeting. Whenever a position is vacated prior to completion of the prescribed term, the vacancy may be filled by the Board of Trustees by an election of a qualified person to complete the unexpired term. An advisory board member may be elected to succeed himself without limitation as to the number of terms previously served.

ARTICLE VII INTERNATIONAL BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. The corporation hereby makes provisions to become involved in various missionary activities. When the activities of the fellowship in a particular country or nation make it desirable, the Board of Trustees may, in its discretion, create an International Board to direct those activities, subject to review by the Board of Trustees. The duties of the International Board will be to exercise such power and authority as had been specifically given to it by the Board of Trustees, and all other activities that are necessary, and do not exceed that intended by the Board of Trustees. The International Board shall have the responsibility of insuring that its activities reflect the principles, nature and purpose of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII
OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Trustees, and shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Board of Trustees may combine any offices except that of President and Treasurer. The Board of Trustees may also appoint one or more Vice Presidents and one or more Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers.

Section 2. Election. The Board of Trustees, at its first regular meeting after the annual meeting of voting members, shall choose a President and Vice President from among the Trustees, and shall choose a Secretary and a Treasurer, neither of whom need be a member of the Board of Trustees. There is no limit as to the number of terms an officer may serve.

Section 3. Other Officers. The Board of Trustees may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall be deemed necessary. They shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Trustees.

Section 4. Salaries. The salaries of all officers shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees.

Section 5. Term. The officers of the fellowship shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Trustees may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of the majority of the Board of Trustees. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the fellowship shall be filled by the Board of Trustees.

Section 6. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the fellowship and, subject to the Board of Trustees, shall have general and direct supervision of the management and operation of the affairs of the fellowship, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. The President shall preside at all meetings of the members and of the Board of Trustees.

He shall execute bonds, mortgages and other contracts requiring a seal under the seal of the fellowship, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Trustees to some other officer or agent of the Corporation.

Section 7. Vice President. The Vice President, or, if there shall be more than one, shall, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Trustees may from time to time prescribe.

Section 8. Secretary and Assistant Secretaries. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Trustees and all meetings of the voting members, shall record all the proceedings of the meetings of the fellowship and of the Board of Trustees in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meeting of the members, Board of Trustees, Advisory Board and International Board, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees or President under whose supervision the Secretary shall be. The Secretary shall have custody of the corporate seal of the fellowship and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and, when so affixed, it may be attested by the Secretary's signature or by the signature of such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Trustees may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the fellowship and to attest the affixing of the Secretary's signature.

The Assistant Secretary, or if there be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries, in the order determined by the Board of Trustees, shall, in the absence or disability of the Secretary, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Trustees may from time to time prescribe.

✓ Section 9. Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the fellowship funds and securities, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the fellowship and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the fellowship in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Trustees.

The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the fellowship as may be ordered by the Board of Trustees, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Trustees at its regular meetings, or when the Board of Trustees so requires, an account of all the Treasurer's transactions as Treasurer, and of financial condition of the fellowship. The Treasurer shall maintain proper recording of giving, especially Designated Offerings, and the proper dispersal of such funds.

If required by the Board of Trustees, the Treasurer shall give the fellowship a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Trustees for the faithful performance of the duties of the Treasurer, and in case of Treasurer's death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, for the restoration to the fellowship of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in the Treasurer's possession or under the Treasurer's control belonging to the fellowship.

The Assistant Treasurer, or, if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers, in order determined by the Board of Trustees shall, in the absence or disability of the Treasurer, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Trustees may from time to time prescribe.

ARTICLE IX
INDEMNIFICATION OF TRUSTEES, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

The fellowship shall indemnify any Trustee, officer or employee, or former Trustee, officer or employee of the fellowship, or any person who may have served at its request as Trustee, officer or employee of another fellowship organization in which it owns shares of stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been such Trustees, officer or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. The fellowship may also reimburse to any Trustee, officer or employee the reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding if it shall be found by a majority of a committee composed of the Trustees not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum) that it was to the interest of the fellowship that such settlement be made and that such Trustee, officer or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which such Trustee, officer or employee may be entitled under any bylaw agreement, vote of members, or otherwise.

ARTICLE X
CONTRACTS

The Board of Trustees, except as in these Bylaws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer or agent to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the fellowship, and such authority may be general or confined to a specific instance; and unless so authorized by the Board of Trustees, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power of authority to bind the fellowship by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit or render it liable pecuniary for any purpose or for any amount.

ARTICLE XI
PROHIBITION AGAINST SHARING IN CORPORATE EARNINGS

No member, Trustee, officer, employee, committee member or person connected with the fellowship, or any other private individual shall receive at any time any of the net earnings or pecuniary profit from the operations of the fellowship, provided that this shall not prevent the payment to any such person of such reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the fellowship in effecting any of its purposes as shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees and/or the combined Board of Trustees and Advisors; and no such person or persons shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the fellowship assets upon the dissolution of the fellowship. All members of the fellowship shall be deemed to have expressly consented and agreed that upon such dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the fellowship, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets of the fellowship, after all debts have been satisfied, then remaining in the hands of the Board of Trustees shall be distributed, transferred, conveyed, delivered and paid over, in such amounts as the Board of Trustees may determine or as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Board of Trustees, exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE XII EXEMPT ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, no member, Trustee, officer, employee or representative of this fellowship shall take any action or carry any activity by or on behalf of the fellowship not permitted to be taken or carried on by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization contribution to which are now deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE XIII ECCLESIASTICAL GOVERNMENT

Section 1. Board of Trustees Shall Govern. The ecclesiastical and sacerdotal control and function of the corporation shall be governed under the dictates of the Board of Trustees. It shall be the responsibility of the Board of Trustees to prepare guidelines with respect to the worship services of the fellowship, teaching the Gospel, and ministering to the congregation of the corporation.

Section 2. Elders. The Board of Trustees may appoint elders from time to time to administer said guidelines and carry out the ecclesiastical and sacerdotal functions of the fellowship. The duties of the elders shall be primarily as that of "overseers of flock" and "prayer to God and ministry of the Word" and as such will govern the Spiritual affairs of the fellowship. A council of elders will consist of all appointed elders. The fundamental responsibility of each elder will vary as assigned by the Board of Trustees.

Section 3. Apostles. The Board of Trustees may appoint Apostles from time to time to be 'sent out' from the Ministry into other cities and lands, for the purpose of establishing new, similar fellowships. The Apostle will operate under instructions of this Board which will also determine and assess the qualifications of each Apostle. The fundamental responsibility of each Apostle will vary as assigned by the Board of Trustees.

Section 4. Administrators. The Board of Trustees may select from the membership Spiritual men and/or women of good report and filled with the Spirit of God, who have the gift of Administration, who will be delegated the responsibility to manage the material and functional affairs of the fellowship.

Section 5. Regular Place of Worship. The Board of Trustees, elders and deacons shall establish a regular place of worship. It is understood that for a period of time that said fellowship will conduct religious services and functions in the city of Cocoa, State of Florida.

Section 6. Sunday Schools. The Board of Trustees and the Board of Elders, at their option, shall also establish Sunday Schools for religious instruction to the congregation of the Corporation and shall establish various guidelines for said religious instruction.

ARTICLE XIV
LICENSING AND ORDINATION OF MINISTERS

Section 1. Training of Ministers. The Corporation makes provisions to establish a prescribed Bible Training School and/or cooperate with an established Bible Training School, so that individuals desiring licensing and ordination as ministers or apostles of the Ministry, shall successfully complete all criteria and courses of study offered or recommended by the Corporation. It shall be understood that any and all ministers who lead and administer worship at the Ministry shall be graduates, or recognized as the equivalent thereof by the Board of Trustees, in good standing from said Ministry, or other recognized Bible Training School, or have received proper preparation to its equivalent.

Section 2. Licensing and Ordination. Upon successful graduation from such prescribed courses, or having equivalent preparation, any individual wishing to apply to this fellowship as a minister shall apply to the Board of Trustees. Upon approval, said individual shall then be an approved minister of the Corporation. The Board of Trustees shall establish various offices of ministries.

The licenses and/or ordination of ministers with the Corporation shall be subject to review annually by the Board of Trustees. Any offices of ministers may be renewed or revoked at any time at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, if said ministers are not ministering and conforming to the religious tenets, faith, ethics, and beliefs of the fellowship.

ARTICLE XV
NOTICE

Section 1. Method of Notice. Any notice to voting members, Board of Trustees or officers of the fellowship shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally or mailed to their respective addresses appearing on the books of the fellowship. Notices by mail shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage paid.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the statutes or under the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XVI
CHECKS

All checks or demands for money and notes of the fellowship shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other persons as the Board of Trustees may from time to time designate.

ARTICLE XVII FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the fellowship, unless otherwise fixed by resolution of the Board of Trustees, shall be on a calendar year basis, ending March 31th of each year.

ARTICLE XVIII
CORPORATE SEAL

The corporate seal, if used, shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or in any manner reproduced.

ARTICLE XIX AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may only be amending or repealed at the Board of Trustees meeting, duly called for the specific purpose of amending or repealing the same
