Purposes

The Corporation is formed exclusively for one or more of the following objects or purposes: for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involves the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or to assist and contribute to the support of any corporation, association, organization, foundation, fund, or trust of any kind organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involves the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Dissolution

In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, the Directors of the Corporation shall have the power to dispose of the total assets of the Corporation in such manner as they may by a majority vote determine; provided, however, that such disposition shall be calculated exclusively to carry out the objects and purposes set forth in Article II above, subject to the limitations contained in Article IV above. In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the Corporation after necessary expenses thereof shall be distributed to such charitable organizations as shall qualify as such under Florida law and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Directors shall determine.
